

Leadership is, 1990, Harrison Owen, 0961820519, 9780961820510, Abbott Pub., 1990

LEADERSHIP IS tells a story which is at once comforting & disturbing. The comfort comes from the assertion that in a world apparently bereft of leadership, there is in fact an abundance, only waiting to be made manifest. The disturbing part lies in the suggestion that leadership is no longer (& possibly never was) a matter of command & control exercised by The One, or the Few, over the many. Leadership is liberation, the capacity to inspire the human Spirit on its quest for fulfillment. It is not about answers, but rather questions. It is not the dictatorial domain of the single powerful leader, but rather the birthright of each & every human soul - only waiting to be realized. Contents: Transformation - The Context of Leadership; The New Rules of Leadership; Learning the New Rules: Lessons from the Disenfranchised; The Functions of Leadership: Evoking Spirit with Vision; Sustaining Spirit with Structure; Reviving Spirit when Grief Works; The Spirit of Leadership - The Leader's Spirit. In commenting on Harrison's previous book, SPIRIT, Peter Vaill says, "I suspect he is closer to the deep springs of meaning in organization than most of his contemporaries, although paradoxically, the deeper he takes us, the more one realizes how much more there is to learn & do." (Peter Vaill, Professor of Human Systems, George Washington University, author of MANAGING AS A PERFORMING ART.) LEADERSHIP IS continues the journey.
